

WHISTLE-BLOWING POLICY

POLICY TITLE: WHISTLE - BLOWING POLICY

Definition: For the purpose of this policy unless the context otherwise indicate “Whistle-blowing” entails revealing such concerns (wrongdoing or improper conduct) within an organization to those in authority. In other words, whistle-blowing is a confidential channel open to all employees and customers of the company to report any wrongdoing to the Board of Directors.

Objective: To create a confidential channel for all employees and customers to report any wrongdoing to the Board.

There are existing procedures in place to enable employees raise grievances about their own employment. This policy is intended to cover concerns that fall outside the scope of individual grievances.

Philosophy: R.T. Briscoe is committed to the highest standards of openness, honesty and accountability. In line with this commitment and in furtherance to the on-going CHANGE effort, the company encourages employees with serious concerns about Company's performance to raise their concerns. This also applies to other stakeholders in their dealings with the company.

Policy Statements:

It is R.T. Briscoe's policy that:

1. Employees may raise concerns about the following (list is in exhaustive)
 - Fraudulent practice
 - Illegal activities
 - Bribery and corruption
 - Misuse of company's assets

- Conflict of interest or abuse of office on the part of any member of staff
 - Activities likely to endanger life or property
 - Sexual Harassment
 - Unethical activities
2. The following categories of people may report concerns
- Employees
 - Management staff
 - Directors
 - Customers
 - Suppliers and service providers

Obligations of the whistle blower:

3. In reporting misconducts, the whistle-blower must ensure that:
- The report is made in good faith
 - He or she has reasonable ground to believe that the report is true
 - He or she is not making the report out of prejudice, malice, bias or personal gain.

False Allegation:

4. Where there are deliberate/malicious false allegations, the following disciplinary measures will be taken against the whistle-blower:
- If the whistle-blower is a member of staff, disciplinary measure will be taken in line with the company policy and may lead to dismissal
 - If the whistle-blower is a supplier or service provider, he or she may be blacklisted.

Procedure for whistle blowing reports:

5. Report can be made in writing by email and addressed to the personal emails of the Chairmen of the committees or whistleblowing@rtbriscoe.com. The Chairman of Executive Selection & Remuneration Committee, the Chairman of the Audit Committee and Chairman of Financial Controls, Systems and Risk Committee will have access to the mail.

Report can also be made verbally either through telephone or in person.

The following telephone lines should be used:

08056232586	(Chairman of the Executive Selection & Remuneration Committee)
08023037318	(Chairman, Audit Committee)
08033047212	(Chairman, Financial Controls, Systems & Risk Committee)

Safeguards for Whistle blowers:

1. The Board recognizes that the decision to report a concern can be a difficult one to make because of victimizations from those responsible for the malpractice. The Board will not tolerate harassment or victimization and will take all possible measure to protect employees who raise legitimate concerns.

Confidentiality:

2. To the extent possible, the Board will protect the identity of employees who raise concerns and do not want their name to be disclosed. It must be appreciated, however, that the investigation may reveal the source of the information and statements made by the employee who raised the issue may be required as part of the evidence.
3. The Board encourages employees to put their names to allegations made. Concerns expressed anonymously may not attract much attention, however they may be considered at the discretion of the Board. In exercising this discretion, the Board will take the following factors into consideration:
 - the seriousness the issue raised;
 - the credibility of the concern;
 - the likelihood of confirming the attributable sources;
 - untrue allegations

Response to whistle blowing:

4. The action to be taken by the Board after receipt of a genuine concern will depend on the nature of the concern. The matters raised may for example:
 - be investigated internally
 - be referred to the Police, or
 - form the subject of an independent inquiry
5. Some concerns may be resolved by agreed action without need for investigation.
6. Within two weeks after a concern has being received, the Chairman, Financial Controls, Systems and Risk Committee or any officer under his instruction will write to the employee who raised the issue to:
 - acknowledge that the concern has been raised
 - indicate how it is proposed to deal with the matter
 - where possible, giving an estimate of how long it will take to provide a final response
 - Inform the employee whether further investigation will take place and, if not, state the reasons.
7. During the course of the inquiry, investigation or resolution of any concern raised; the extent of interaction between the officers considering the issue and the whistle blower will depend on the nature of the matters raised, the potential difficulties involved and the clarity of the information provided. If necessary, further information will be sought from the whistle blower.
8. When any meeting is arranged with employee, he or she will be given the right to be accompanied by a Trade Union representative or a work colleague either of whom must not be involved in the area of work to which the concern relates.

9. To the extent practicable, the Board will endeavour to assure the whistle blower that the matter has been properly addressed and will endeavour to inform the whistle blower of the outcome of any investigation.
10. The Board shall however have the sole discretion to determine the extent and nature of information to oblige the whistle blower in each case.

Compensation:

11. To encourage stakeholders to report misconducts or wrongdoings, whistle blowers will be offered compensation to the tune of 5% of the value of cash or value of non-cash items recovered/gained by the company.
12. The Chairman, Financial Controls, Systems and Risk Committee has the overall responsibility for the maintenance and operation of this policy. He maintains a record of concerns raised and the outcomes and will report, as necessary to the Management Committee and/ or the Board; provided that he may, were he so elects, delegate this function to any officer of the company who shall report to him directly.
13. This procedure shall be subject to periodic review and may be changed from time to time.
